COUNCILMEMBER YVONNE KNAACK APPOINTED VICE MAYOR

GLENDALÉ, Ariz. – Councilmember Yvonne Knaack has been appointed vice mayor for the city of Glendale.

The City Council selected Knaack to the position at its meeting on Tuesday (February 12). The vice mayor performs the duties of the mayor during the mayor's absence. City Council guidelines require councilmembers to nominate candidates for vice mayor each year.

Knaack was first elected to the City Council in 2006 and was re-elected and began her second term in 2011. She represents the Barrel District.

Knaack has worked and owned a business in Glendale since 1970 and has been a resident since 1984. Currently, she is the owner/agent of the State Farm Insurance office in downtown Glendale.

In addition, Knaack serves on the board of directors of the Arizona Municipal Water Users Association, representing Glendale's water interests. She is also chair of the Glendale Sustainability Subcommittee, which is working toward green initiatives for city processes.

Knaack is active in many civic organizations and currently serves on the boards of the Salvation Army, Glendale Kiwanis Club and Heart for the City.
